Letter From the Editors

Dear NRA members;

Our March was a complicated by a number of events, not the least of which was the marriage of our son, Will, to his cute little blonde girlfriend, Toni, on March 27. They live in Bozeman where they are MSU students. Son Pete has 10 bum calves this spring, and son Flint has his usual five bum lambs. Amidst it all, a seismograph crew left the gate open on our horse pasture, and our trusty steeds had a heyday trouncing around the soggy wheat fields east of Choteau for several days before being re-captured. Daughter Linda hightailed it back to the serenity of Hannon Hall at MSU because she couldn't handle the commotion. And "tax practitioner" Stan has been up to his eyebrows in 1040 forms!

We thank you for your response to the last issue of the NRA News. Keep it up. It makes our job much easier.

If you have not paid your dues, do it now! The June issue of the NRA News will be your last in 1980 dues!

An exciting college rodeo season is now well under way, to be highlighted by the College National Finals to be held in Bozeman in June. Support these college kids, as well as the high school rodeos to begin soon — these kids are the future of the NRA.

This issue contains an open book judges test. After completion of the test, send it to the NRA office for correction. Passing this test is only one of several pre-requisites for becoming an NRA judge. Bill Stovall is chairman of this project, and questions about it can be addressed to him.

The next issue will be labeled MAY-JUNE and we'll try to get closer to the first of the month with our mailing date. Please get all material to us by MAY 9.

Deadline for the July issue will be JUNE 11. Deadline for August will be JULY 11. The September-October issue will come out after the Labor Day rodeos are complete.

Tootie and Stan

Mailing the NRA News

In order for the NRA News to get a third class mailing permit and the substantial decrease in postage rates that we get, it is necessary to pre-sort the newsletters to make it easier for the Postal Service to speed the newsletter on to you. We have come up with some interesting statistics because of that pre-sorting.

The mailing permit does not, however, allow your newsletter to be forwarded should you move or otherwise have an address change. All these things save the NRA over $200 per month in postage.

The pre-sorting rules are quite complicated, having to do with zip codes, but it is interesting to note where all the newsletters go.

The majority go to eastern Montana. About 200 go to areas where the zip code begins with "590" and to the city of Billings itself.

If there are 10 or more newsletters being mailed to the same zip code number (or town) they are mailed direct. Some of the towns which have 10 or more newsletters being mailed direct are, of all places, Melstone, and Roundup, Hardin, Miles City, Lewistown, Powell, Wyo., and Billings.

Fifty newsletters go to Canada and First Class postage must be paid on these. One hundred six newsletters go to Wyoming alone, and 92 are mailed to "Mixed States" such as Idaho, Oregon, Washington, Utah, North Dakota, South Dakota, Nebraska, Colorado, Oklahoma, Arizona and others.

The fewest number of newsletters go to the zip code "599," Kalispell area, where only five go, and one of those is the Coors distributor in Kalispell. The other zip code areas in western Montana where the MRA reigns supreme, are also "short." Last month we mailed out a total of 824 newsletters.

We used to sort the newsletters on our living room floor, making a pile for each zip code area, and then sorting them from there. It took us nearly 8 hours, our whole family working, to label, sort, count and bundle the newsletters for mailing.

Since last June we have used an addressograph machine at the publisher's for mailing. Each person has his own "plate," and these plates are sorted into zip code areas. So the newsletters are sorted as they are addressed. This cuts down the man hours needed to mail the newsletter to about three hours.

However, don't ask us for someone's address unless you know their zip code, because that's how the "plates" are sorted. We need your address changes when you move because your newsletter will not follow you. Let us know when you move. It saves lots of gray hair!

COORS MEETING

On Feb. 27, 1981, I attended a meeting with the Coors people in Denver. Representing Coors were Jim Wildman, Shelly Burmeister and Mike Hudson. The regional rodeo association representatives were from Montana, Arizona, Nebraska, Utah, New Mexico, Wyoming and South Dakota.

It was a very informative meeting with Coors explaining the wide variety of promotional material available through their local distributors. Some of the items they have available at no cost to the rodeos are:

- (A) Program covers
- (B) Window streamers, personalized for each rodeo.
- (C) Contestant numbers
- (D) Directional signs for use on the rodeo grounds.
- (E) Barrel decals and place mats for use at restaurants, etc.

When ordering items from Coors that are personalized, they stressed the importance of giving them at least 60 days lead time, so order early! For committees who haven't made use of this program it appears this could really help out on a tight advertising budget.

Coors will forward a tentative list of our rodeos to their distributors in the form of a rodeo calendar in April. Work with your Coors Distributors!

We also discussed Coors involvement in open rodeos. Their purpose is to support regional rodeo, however, they will honor present commitments to open rodeos.

1981 FINALS

Our 1981 Finals showed a profit to the NRA of $4,750.00. From the way the weather treated us on opening night, I feel this is very good news and speaks well for all the hard work put in by the people associated with the finals. Super job.

GOOD NEWS

I had a nice visit with Terry Warneke recently. He is up and around and said he is feeling much better. We all wish him a speedy recovery.

We will move the NRA office to the PUBLIC AUCTION YARDS here in Billings on May 1, 1981. This move has to have a very positive effect on the NRA for people pulling trailers will have parking.

ABOUT ME

When Tootie asked that I send in a little something about myself along with a picture, I discovered that the few pictures I have are all old, but I will send one in as soon as I find an acceptable photographer.

I am just finishing my twentieth year with the Montana Department of Highways as Right of Way Agent, here in Billings. My wife, Tonya, works for an oil company and runs the household.

It was interesting to note that Tootie and Stan said their children, for their own peace of mind, do not rodeo. Well, mine do, and it doesn't do much for my peace of mind at times. Brad, 19, is in his second year at Dawson Community College in Glendive; Stacey, 15, is a sophomore at Billings Senior High. We live on a small acreage north of Billings with just about enough room to keep the kids' horses and a few roping calves.

As a contestant, I worked the calf roping and team roping, but quit six years ago when I had a little problem with my back. The kids probably benefitted from that, because they then started to spend what I was saving.

Rodeo has always been my first love and I hope to have a happy association with the NRA.

1981 Rule Book Changes

The 1981 rule book is in the process of being printed. In the meantime, to assist you in preparing for the upcoming rodeo season and to help you in taking the judges test, the changes in the 1980 rule book as voted on by the NRA Board of Directors in February, are printed here.

Some of the highlights and major rule changes concern: entry fees - minimum entry fee has been raised from $25 to $35 to further enhance rodeo payoffs; turnouts; day money; time limits on timed events have been eliminated for the finals only; and many others. Please read the rule changes here and when the new rule book comes out. "Ignorance of the law is no excuse."

1. On Page 9, No. 9, add this sentence to the end of the paragraph, "If a proxy vote is used, a signed, notarized consent from the director must be sent to the NRA office."

2. Page 4, No. 4, shall read as follows: "It shall be the duty of the board of directors to work to obtain rodeos and they shall work with every effort with rodeo managements."

3. Page 6, No. 15. "Junior Membership - $10. Does include subscription to the newsletter.

4. Page 6, No. 15, was reworded, but essentially says the same, that is, that stock contractors must have a regular membership card in order to compete, along with the stock contractor's membership fee of $40. Also in the same rule, No. 15, in paragraph six, the words, "Contract Acts and Professional Promoters," will be deleted.

5. Page 7, No. 10, shall read as follows: "It will be compulsory for any Association member to ride in grand entries. A $10 fine may be assessed any member who refuses to abide by said rule."

6. Page 7, No. 3, shall read as follows: "A minimum of $50 purse a performance in all adult events is required with a minimum of $35 entry fees per person, per event, plus stock charge of $4 per adult event except ladies barrel racing."

7. Page 8, No. 5, shall read as follows: "Any rodeo co-approved with another association must be brought before the board of directors or the advisory board for approval."

8. Page 10, No. 15, shall read as follows: "The decisions of the judges, flagmen, secretaries and timers who have been accepted by the association shall be final and no protest by the contestants will be permitted unless incompetence is proven."

9. Page 10, No. 23. This entire rule has been removed, and several have been added, both in its place and at various places throughout the rule book.

A. A contestant turning out in any event may contest in the rest of his events plus payment of his turnout fees. No stock shall be brought back after turning out.

B. A contestant turning out in any event will pay a fine matching the entry fee for each event turned out.

C. The buddy system will be limited to two contestants per event, but six people can be on one buddy plan.

D. Turnout fees will be sent to the NRA office and applied to the finals purse.

10. Page 14, No. 3, shall read as follows: "A rodeo will pay day money if there is a minimum payoff of $1,500 per event, $3,000 in the team roping, when the entries close. The three per cent will be taken off the pay off before any breakdown is made. There is no ground money paid on any day money. There is no day money paid in Junior events.

Day Money Formula

1 - 5 contestants: first gets 100%.

6 - 11 contestants: first, 60%, second, 40%.

12 - 17 contestants: first, 50%; second, 30%; third 20%.

30 - 35 contestants: first, 34%; second, 26%; third, 18%; fourth, 10%; fifth, 7%; sixth, 5%.

Rodeo Royal Unique

By Lois Hill

The Rodeo Royal was a unique rodeo to say the least, with two associations competing, but not against each other. The competitors in the broncs and barebacks for both associations were nearly even in percentages ridden and average scores, but the NARC bull riders overshadowed the CPRCA/PRCA riders by quite a margin.

In the timed events it was hard to compare times, as the time in the dual events starts when the green light comes on, and in the single competition time starts when the calf reaches the score line. The secretaries and timers figured that was approximately a two second starting difference. The rodeo went well and the crowds were good.

The Calgary Stampede, July 3 through 12, will be with both associations competing again. The first half will be NARC team rodeo such as the previous two years, but with only one go-round in each event, and the second half will be CPRA/PRCA rodeo.

The decision has not been made by the Calgary board yet as to how many teams they will need for a double elimination tournament consisting of ten games. There will probably be six teams, instead of 11 as previously, but that is not definite yet. There have not been any areas designated as to where the teams will be selected. They will make the decision soon and all that information should be in the next issue of World of Rodeo and sent to each association's offices.

There will be no decision made by the Calgary Royal and Stampede board on 1982 and future years until after the Stampede has been completed and they have evaluated both rodeos.

Following is a comparison between the NARC and the CRCA.

Event	NARC	CPRA

NARC News

By Lois Hill

The North American Finals will be held in Denver, Colo. at the coliseum (the same place the National Western is held) on Nov. 8 through 14. There will be two go-arounds and a top 12 in the finals. The first go will be in slack on Nov. 8 and 9, with two sessions each day, and the performances will start the evening of the tenth. Veterans' Day is Nov. 11, so there will be two performances that day, evening performances on Nov. 12 and 13, and two performances on Nov. 14. The evening performance on Nov. 14 will be the finals.

With the NAF being held in November and in Denver, there should be a wider selection of stock from which to choose, so there should be more depth of good bucking horses. There should be very little difficulty in getting the actual top three in each event competing for their associations. The cut-off deadline for qualifying is Oct. 1, 1981.

The NARC board decided to select the personnel at the meeting July 11 in Calgary instead of at the March meeting as previously reported. If you are interested in applying for a job at the NAF, let Lois Hill know before July 1.

NRA Rodeo Schedule

June 6, 7 — Absarokee
June 13, 14 — Gardiner
June 19, 20, 21 — Gillette, Wyo.
June 20, 21 — Hardin
June 27, 28 — Big Timber
June 27, 28 — Opheim
July 3, 4 — Roundup
July 3, 4 — Harlowton
July 17, 18, 19 — Shelby
July 18, 19 — Winnett
July 23, 24, 25 — Lewistown
Aug. 8, 9 — Havre
Aug. 10, 11, 12, 13 — Billings
Aug. 14, 15 — Riverton, Wyo.

Secretary's Seminar

If there is enough interest, Lois Hill will hold a rodeo secretary's seminar the last week of May in Lewistown.

Let the NRA office know by April 24 if you are interested and what date and time would be best.
